New Juvenile & Youth Books

February • 2021

* Clicking on the title of a book will bring you to the record in our catalog; from there, you can reserve the item and get more information about the book as well.
Claudia has always been the most creative kid in her class... until Ashley Wyeth comes along. Ashley’s really different: she wears hippie clothes, has multiple earrings, and she’s the most fantastic artist Claudia has ever met.

Hundreds of years ago, MAGIC disappeared from Earth. At least...UNTIL NOW. Because suddenly, giant magical beings are appearing and only GINA can see them. Not to mention, Gina can somehow do magic herself.

S.U.I.T. headquarters is under attack, and Mango and Brash are going undercover and underground disguised as city sewer workers to unclog a sticky situation.
Welcome to the White House! Go behind the scenes to get a 360-degree view of America’s most famous president’s residence, from how it was built in 1792 and the fire of 1812, to today’s state dinners, celebrations, celebrity pets, and more.

125 Cool Inventions
by Crispin Boyer

Presents information about 125 interesting new inventions that showcase cutting edge technology, or are just clever and fun, from a hotel that floats in the air and a drone delivery service, to a toilet aquarium and self-driving toy cars.

1,000 Facts About the White House
by Sarah Wassner Flynn
A Child’s Introduction to Art
by Heather Alexander

Explores the world of art and artists, including Michelangelo, Mary Cassatt, and Vincent Van Gogh, and features do-it-yourself art projects.

Crossing on Time
by David Macaulay

An extended picture book about the history and construction of the steamship SS United States, its designer William Francis Gibbs, and author/illustrator David Macaulay’s personal story of immigration to America on board the SS United States.
How To Be A Scientist
by Steve Mould
Provides step-by-step instructions for over forty science experiments examining the human body, the Earth, the natural world, and the properties of space. Also includes stories about famous scientists and pages explaining the science behind the activities.

How To Be A Coder
by Kiki Prottsman
This crafty coding book breaks down the principles of coding into bite-sized chunks that will get you thinking like a computer scientist in no time.
Legacy: Woman Poets of the Harlem Renaissance
by Nikki Grimes

From Children's Literature Legacy Award-winning author Nikki Grimes comes a feminist-forward new collection of poetry celebrating the little-known women poets of the Harlem Renaissance--paired with full-color, original art from today's most talented female African-American illustrators.

Montezuma
by Struan Reid

Presents and overview of Montezuma's life as well as his influence on history and the world.
Old Enough to Save the Planet
by Loll Kirby

I'm big enough to read this book, I'm smart enough to hear the news, I care enough to make a change, I'm old enough to save the planet. The world is facing a climate crisis like we've never seen before. And kids around the world are stepping up to raise awareness and try to save the planet.

Room Love
by Heather Wutschke

Offers step-by-step instructions for fifty projects designed to create unique spaces, including furniture makeovers, storage ideas, and wall accents.
Nesta and Cassian must face their haunting pasts in order to stop a dangerous alliance of treacherous human queens.

The last thing Jacob Portman saw before the world went dark was a terrible, familiar face. Suddenly, he and Noor are back in the place where everything began—his grandfather’s house. Jacob doesn’t know how they escaped from V’s loop to find themselves in Florida. But he does know one thing for certain: Caul has returned. After a narrow getaway from a blood-thirsty hollow, Jacob and Noor reunite with Miss Peregrine and the peculiar children in Devil’s Acre. The Acre is being plagued by desolations—weather fronts of ash and blood and bone—a terrible portent of Caul’s amassing army.
Crier’s War: Book #1
by Nina Varela

An elite Automae who has discovered that she possesses a feared human emotion and a human girl seeking to avenge the death of her family forge an unexpected relationship that becomes a catalyst for war.

Iron Heart: Book #2
by Nina Varela

The human revolution has risen against the Automae of Rabu, and at its heart is Ayla. Once a handmaiden, now a fugitive, Ayla narrowly escaped the palace of Lady Crier, the girl she would've killed if they hadn't fallen in love first. Unbeknownst to Ayla, Crier escaped as well, joining with rebels and determined to find her way back to her love. When their paths finally cross and Ayla is charged to destroy the Iron Heart, neither girl is prepared for the secrets the mission will reveal.
Mallory was an abused child, but after years of homeschooling with loving adoptive parents it's time for her to attend high school. On her first day she runs into her childhood protector and friend, Rider Stark. As they grow closer and his life begins to spiral out of control, she realizes she must make a choice between staying silent or speaking out to help him.

When Abby signs up for a DNA service, it's mainly to give her friend and secret love interest, Leo, a nudge. After all, she knows who she is already: Avid photographer. Injury-prone tree climber. Best friend to Leo and Connie...although ever since the B.E.I. (Big Embarrassing Incident) with Leo, things have been awkward on that front. But she didn't know she's a younger sister. When the DNA service reveals Abby has a secret sister, shimmery-haired Instagram star Savannah Tully, it's hard to believe they're from the same planet, never mind the same parents.
If there’s one thing seventeen-year-old Maverick Carter knows, it’s that a real man takes care of his family. As the son of a former gang legend, Mav does that the only way he knows how: dealing for the King Lords. With this money he can help his mom, who works two jobs while his dad’s in prison. Life’s not perfect, but with a fly girlfriend and a cousin who always has his back, Mav’s got everything under control. Until, that is, Maverick finds out he’s a father.